

Power to Save

An initiative of Think Local First DC's

To help your DC businesses save on energy, Think Local First is providing free, simple energy assessments from March 15th to April 22nd.

Trained DC university student volunteers will do the assessments, which cost nothing, take 30 minutes, and show how you can easily save on your business' energy costs.

To sign up, visit powertosavedc.com

Brought to you by:

DC
SUSTAINABLE ENERGY
UTILITY

To sponsor student volunteers, email Katharine Pelzer: kpelzer@nextility.com